

I am a professional driver and depend on XM radio for weather, traffic, news and entertainment. I'm in the opinion it's rather lame of the NAB to try and use the law in an attempt to squash or limit competition of traditional radio. While I'm on the road XM is almost all I listen to however when I am home I continue to support my local radio broadcasters. I ask that no legislation be enacted to restrict XM broadcasting content.